General Joseph E. Johnston, Washington, D. C.:

Dear General.—No higher honor could be conferred upon me by that Spartan band of true and tried bemocracy the Old Dominion Club of Jefferson Ward than being their medium of inferming you of your unanimous election to its honorary membership. Of the many distinguished names that now appear upon its rolls the same of General Joseph E. Johnston will ever occupy the front rank and ever be held in fondest remambrance by all its members. I have this day forwarded your certificate of election. With my best wishes for your future walfars and haupiness, I have the honor to remain, yours very respectfully.
